UK-Indian Civil Nuclear Collaboration initiated in 2011 between EPSRC and DAE, to support scientific exchange and interaction.

To date, three tranches of funding, supporting ~22 projects; proposals submitted to Phase 4 in July.

Indo-UK Network: supported by EPSRC, established November 2015:

- Simon Walker, (Imperial College London, Network PI)
- Bill Nuttall, (The Open University)
- Amy Gandy, (Sheffield)
- Giovanni Giustini (Imperial College London) Network Administrator

Network Aims include:

- To foster mutual awareness and contact between the UK researchers involved in the Indo – UK projects,
- To help facilitate linkages between UK and Indian researchers,
- To share experiences of working with Indian laboratories,

First plenary Indo-UK conference,
Sheffield, December 2016

- To identify and promote best practice,
- To encourage other UK researchers to become involved.
